Sowing Seeds for Success

Sowing Seeds for Success starts with seeking God's kingdom first and His righteousness. This is a principle I learned as I began my personal journey and relationship with the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit some years ago.

For as long as I can remember, I have always loved God, and I love Him more and more everyday. As I grow older, I grow wiser and I now possess a clear and much better understanding of God's character and His loving ways and in my learning my relationship with Him has soared and sweetened. My life, forever transformed through by His infinite wisdom, His powerful word and excellent greatness, His wondrous works, His Sovereign Power and His amazing love. My faith is far beyond anything I could ever possibly imagine and I trust Him the way I love Him; with all my heart, mind and soul.

Do You Have a Relationship with God?

Can you honestly say that you love and trust God? Do you seek to know Him better; do you thirst for Him and His word? Do you believe you can do nothing without Him? Do you rely on the guidance of the Holy Spirit for your life? Do you start your day with God; thanking, worshipping and praising Him? Do you honor Him for His faithfulness to you? Do you promise to commit and surrender your life to Him every day to receive clear and concise instruction for your life, your goals and your dreams? Do you listen attentively for God's voice before making decisions regarding your aspirations? Do you go to Him in prayer when suffering, hurting or when faced with obstacles and giants that are too grand for you to knock down on your own? Do you thank God as you work through difficult situations, hardships or when you're being persecuted? Do you realize you are nothing without Jesus?

Do you believe that you can think outside of the box using your own strength or mind? Are you afraid to step outside of the box because you lack faith or perhaps you really do not understand what it means to have faith and this, you believe, has stunted your growth in achieving your goals and living in your dreams?

Living in your dream is a time when you think and ponder, hmmm, I would love to _____ and then you take the necessary steps to actually live your dreams by fulfilling the goals you have living on the inside of you.

Is there a dream in you that you would love to see manifested or come to fruition, but again, you're trying to accomplish in your own strength, thinking you have complete control over it; do you believe in yourself and your goals, but you don't know how to achieve them or you're not sure as to what steps to take in order to reach your destination...life?

Building Your Foundation

Building your life's foundation begins with delighting yourself in the Lord. To be empowered, enlightened, encouraged...building your foundation begins with the word of God, a prayer for wisdom and a strong thirst for knowledge for the word of God. Petitioning God and submitting your requests to Him for whatever you are seeking starts in His word. Studying, meditating upon God's word and applying His principles to your life and for your life is essential for a fulfilling, rewarding and an uplifted Spirit-filled life to receive an abundance of joy, happiness and contentment that comes from knowing the Father and forming an intimate relationship with Him. Your main focus, first priority and ultimate goal should always be to serve the Lord thy God, trusting God and obeying God and seeking His truths and His will for your life.

Building Your Foundation on Faith

God Will Empower, Enable & Enlighten You.

The things we do for love should be for the love of God.

Have you ever stopped to think about how much God truly and deeply loves you? God shows and professes His love to us in countless ways. Have you ever looked around outside and exhaled as you stood amongst God's glory and power? Looking up at the sky you and out into His majesty, you can see that there is no beginning and no end. God's majesty goes far beyond anything that the eye can see. Give God praise. This alone tells you of God's amazing and awesome love that He feels for you which should tell you that He has something so great for you that you cannot even begin to imagine for God's love is immeasurable.

God's Plan for You

God has an awesome plan for your life. Perfect and tailor made, in His plan for you God has compiled a list of tools for you that you can use to help you to quite simply achieve the goals He has for you. It is important to listen to God. How do you listen to God? By delving deep into His word, finding Scriptures pertaining to whatever circumstances or situation you are in. God can speak to you in ways you may never imagine –thru friends, family, circumstances, thru obstacles. God also speaks thru Scriptures, miracles, parables—it is vital for you to be still, at peace, quiet and attentive.

Praying to God

Prayer is powerful, very powerful. It can be the blessing you need as you start your day with God and end your day with Him, thanking God for the endless blessings He so mercifully showered you with through His divine presence living inside you and all around you. Helping you to say the right words to form a much needed sentence—God guided, led, directed, and instructed you whether you were aware of it or not, God was in the midst and for as long as you live, He always will be. God has and will continue to bless you with a harvest of his best for you.

Seek Him with All Your Heart.

Sharing a loving bond with God will add warmth, goodness, humility, peace, joy, happiness and true contentment to an otherwise ordinary life. Rejoicing in the Father, trusting and obeying Him should be easy for you. There are no difficulties with God. Things in life should be easy for you, but man, not God, makes life hard. That is why we have to trust God the way we love Him. We have to wait on God—there is no other way to live your life.

God has the power to do great things in your life. He is Sovereign. He will never leave you and He will never forsake you. He will listen to you and find resolutions to all your problems. He will carry you out of darkness He will mend your heart; He will love you like no one else can love you—He will empower you to soar way above and beyond your deepest dreams and desires; He will give you what is best for you. He will walk you through each and every step you take to ensure you achieve your goals; He will show you things that will make you want to live your life only for Him; He will help you move mountains; He will illuminate your path for your journey in Him and with Him; He will always be with you; you shall not fall and you shall not fear any man. God will give you an awesome sense of peace.

God will prosper you; He will make you rich in wisdom and in your finances. – believe in him, live for Him, obey Him, honor Him, praise Him, worship Him, exalt Him, magnify Him and love Him. Commit and surrender your life to Him; open your arms and embrace God and His truths. The Light of Glory shall shine in you forevermore for His mercy endureth forever.

Keep God Uppermost in Your Thoughts.

Living to honor, worship, exalt, magnify and glorify the Lord thy God should be the way you start and end each day of your life. Enjoying His character and His loving ways is the best and really the only way to live your life, achieve your goals as you dream your dreams and live in the Light.

God's Promises

Courage to begin your journey and faith to take that first step toward fulfilling your aspirations are the two components you will need to take your journey that never ends, but allows you to continually equip yourself with wisdom and knowledge making you even better and stronger than you were the day before.

Inside you lay a well of wishes. In those wishes are stars and inside each star you will find:

1. Your name – your name is unique simply because it belongs to you. You are unique because God created you. This alone tells you that you can reach the dreams you may believe are impossible to achieve because God has a plan for you; perfect in every way.
 2. Your dreams – your dreams are the visions God has implanted deep inside you and along with those dreams He has equipped you with every single tool you will need to live your dreams.
 3. Your goals – your goals are your daily tasks; it is your to do list that should be designated by the hours in the day, the days in the week and the week in that particular month. You should have a time table for which you live by to achieve all the goals you have written on the table of your heart.

4. Your achievements – your achievements can help you in so many areas of your life because if you've written down everything you've achieved, you can cross it off your list and set a new path for growth as well as for accomplishing your new goals.
 5. Your fruits – your fruits live within you and show through in your character and personality.
 6. Your strengths – your strengths allow you to do things in the name of Jesus Christ that you could never achieve on your own.
 7. Your weaknesses – your weaknesses can become your strengths to teach you things you never knew that you could learn.
 8. Your skills – your skills help you to do all the things you've been assigned to do in your life.
 9. Your gifts – your gifts are all the presents God blessed you with and bestowed upon when He created you. You should use your gifts to bring glory and honor to His Holy and Majestic name.
 10. Your abilities – you have the ability to do an awesome work in your life; it is important for you to realize that you have the ability to touch, bless and transform your own life and those around you because you are a child of God.
 11. Your talents – your talents will send you soaring as you seek to explore and use your gifts for God.
 12. Your fears – your fears do not have to be a hindrance, but should be a stepping stone into faith; moving out of the darkness and into the Light that will help you to obtain mountain moving faith in Jesus Christ.
 13. Courage – having courage to use your gifts, your skills, your talents and your abilities as you work towards achieving your goals, you'll be able to step out in faith to fulfill all of your dreams no matter the number.

14. Beliefs – believing, obeying and trusting in God, seeking first His kingdom and His righteousness you'll be able to do all things through Christ which strengthens you.

Use your gifts to Glorify God
Share your gifts with others
Thank God daily for your gifts.

The Desires of Your Heart – What is it that you desire to do with your life? Is your heart speaking to you in a way it has never spoken to you before? Has something unique and special been written on the table of your heart. Has something been locked in your heart, soul, spirit and you need to unlock them all? Has God planted seeds into your heart and you pray He will water them for growth? Do you seek God's kingdom first? Do you long to be your best? Do you long for prosperity? Do you seek wealth in every area of your life?

Today is the day that you answer all these questions and even those questions you may be asking your heart and you have yet taken the time to answer. Write your answers below:

Little Steps that Lead to Grand Achievements

Get Ready to Begin Your Journey

Write Down Your Daily Goals

Before you write down your thoughts, your dreams, your goals, aspirations and endeavors, go to God in prayer for clear direction, instruction on how to achieve your goal; ask God for sound wisdom and guidance for each goal you are preparing to work towards. After you have finished praying, write a note to God telling Him that you trust Him and that all your faith rests in Him alone. Write down how grateful you are to God for His divine presence in your life and for what He is about to do for you. Tell Him that you are going to delight yourself in Him and that you will be of a good courage as you walk with Him as you work to achieve your many goals.

Write down your goals; next to each goal, write the day and time; you will then look at your calendar and write down the day you plan to achieve your goals, one goal at a time. As you achieve your goals, put a star next to it to serve as a reminder that you have achieved that goal and be sure to write the date and time you accomplished your goal. It may not necessarily be your goal to accomplish a particular goal in the same day you write them so be sure to write down the date beside each goal and the day you want to achieve them. Write down the tools you will be using to help you to accomplish your goals.

Again give God thanks for leading, guiding, directing and instructing you as you begin your journey into your life's destination.

Your Thoughts

Your gifts: What are your gifts; write each gift down on a 3x5 card. How will you incorporate your gifts into your daily list of things to do?

Your talents: Write down all of your talents and how you will use them to reach your destiny.

Your skill set: What special skill set do you possess? Write them all down and how you will activate and implement them into your achieving your goals.

Your abilities: What are your abilities as they pertain to your goals and dreams. Write them down and elaborate how they can help you to start your journey.

Do you know that using the gifts God has given you is what will bring you the most fulfillment and enjoyment in your life along with blessings to many too count and contain? The gifts God has given are precious and should be used for His glory.

And when you use His gifts, He smiles and He opens His heart and hands to shower you with an abundance of true blessings as only He can.

I saw a twinkle
In the eye of a star
A lamp unto my feet
For my journey yet far.
Wings of faith
Help me believe
Fulfilling my dreams
My goals to achieve.
Fruits of the Spirit
Embrace my life
My footsteps sure
I sojourn in the Light.
Encompassing peace
From Jesus the Christ.
